Chair Barbar introduced new Trustee Shaun Davis. Trustee Davis has an accounting firm in Hollywood and other offices in the state, called S. Davis & Associates. He is very active in the accounting world, the Orange Bowl Committee, and in the Urban League of Broward County.

Chair Barbar was in Tallahassee with President Kelly for Palm Beach County Day the Economic Council and the Board of Governors meeting. Chair Barbar is appreciative of the tremendous support from local businesses and the community and governmental partners. FAU was invited to present our partnership with Scripps and Max Planck to the Board of Governors which went very well.

III. President's Report

President Kelly was impressed by the start of the spring semester which went very smoothly. The weather up North is good for recruiting. The administration has helped call potential students who are thinking of coming to FAU. President Kelly has called high school students with a GPR of over 5.0.

During the first week of classes, President Kelly attended Palm Beach County Day and was able to talk to the leadership in Tallahassee. Ryan Britton and Jeff Atwater did a great job at guiding issues when meeting with the delegation. The turnout from Palm Beach County, which included business and academic leaders, was impressive. FAU was a huge part of the comprehensive plan for Palm Beach County, with support from the county and business community. FAU also were picked to speak on Think Florida. Governor Scott is starting an initiative to have 100 percent job placement in
